Victorian Marine Licence Training and/or PWC Endorsement Course

1. Aim

The course is designed to assist individuals in obtaining the knowledge required to qualify for the recreational Marine Licence and/or PWC endorsement. Marine Training Services is an approved Transport Safety Victoria provider (RTO no. 4653). Approved marine licence training courses are valid for 12 months. Course instructor details are listed on the Marine Training Services web site (<http://www.marinetraining.vic.edu.au/rboc.htm>) or can be obtained by telephoning Marine Training Services on 03 5229 5432.

Individuals who have successfully completed a Marine Training Services approved Marine Licence Training Course, may apply for a licence consistent with the course completed, without sitting a licence test at VicRoads. To obtain a Victorian Marine Licence, individuals must take their marine licence training course certificate of attainment to VicRoads, along with appropriate evidence of identify (a licence fee applies). Applicants are required to meet basic medical and eyesight standards.

The certificate of attainment issued upon successfully completing the marine licence training course and/or personal watercraft endorsement is valid for 12 months from the date of issue. There are no extensions to the certificate of attainment once the 12 month validity period has elapsed.

All boat operators require a licence to operate a powered recreational vessel in Victoria. The Marine Act 2010 states that:

- any person who operates a registered recreational powerboat must have a licence
- operators of personal watercraft (PWCs) must have their licence endorsed accordingly
- interstate licences will be automatically recognised in Victoria.

2. Marine Licence and Personal Watercraft (PWC) Endorsement Eligibility

A PWC Endorsement to a Marine licence is required to operate this type of vessel.

You must be at least 16 years old to obtain a PWC Endorsement.

Note: A PWC endorsement may not be issued as a standalone licence. If an endorsement is required, a marine licence must first be obtained.

3. Marine Licence

Any person operating a powered vessel must carry their marine licence at all times.

4. Course Content

1. Trip preparation
2. Safe operation
3. Emergency procedures

The minimum passing grade for both the marine licence test is 26/30 and for the PWC endorsement test is 13/15.

At the completion of the assessment students will be advised whether they have passed or failed.

Where a student is not successful in attaining the required number of correct answers they may be given the option to attempt a different version of the test. This may be attempted immediately following the first attempt. Where an applicant is not successful on the second attempt they may not attempt the test again on the same day. ### Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an assessment process whereby you are given the option of claiming recognition of previous learning and experience against the elements of a Unit of Competency.

RPL involves a detailed assessment of both your qualifications and skills. You should only apply if you have a real belief that you already possess the knowledge and skills that are outlined in the training content.

A person may receive exemption from an element of competency, more than one element of competency or even the whole unit of competency.

By claiming RPL the duration of learning and training may be reduced.

Types of Evidence

The RPL application must make a claim for recognition against the Learning Outcomes of a Unit of Competency and justify the claim by providing appropriate evidence. Evidence may come from the following sources:

- Life experience
- Training courses and programmes
- Work experience

This evidence may include, but not be limited to:

- Educational qualifications, certificates, and/or awards
- Statement of results/attainment
- Information on training programmes completed, eg curriculum
- Work history and records
- Employment testimonials
- Sample of work completed
- References or testimonials from past/current work supervisors

Steps to Achieving Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

STEP 1 – Application for RPL must be made prior to enrolling in a course and at least one week before a course commences.

If you feel you may be eligible for RPL, consider if your knowledge and skills will meet all the Learning Outcomes outlined in a Unit of Competency.

Contact Marine Training Services on 03 5229 5432 to arrange an appointment for an interview with the Training Managers at the Geelong Office to discuss:

- Required elements of the Unit of Competency you wish to RPL
- Your responsibility to prove you have the knowledge and skills outlined in the training content
- How knowledge and skills are assessed
- The suitability and validity of your evidence
- RPL cost and application process

STEP 2

Upon completion of the interview if you still wish to apply for RPL, you will complete and submit an RPL Application form with all relevant documentation and the application fee.

The fee to apply for RPL is $100.

STEP 3

Marine Training Services will then assess your skills, knowledge and documentation submitted.

Marine Training Services may base their judgement for granting RPL on:

1. Demonstration of Knowledge, by way of questionnaire, checklist or short answer questions.
2. Demonstration of Practical Skills, through practical skill exercises on or off the job, based on the elements of competency.

You may not be required to complete both of these factors to be granted exemptions, but there is a strong possibility that both your knowledge and skills may need to be assessed. Therefore, you may need to do some preparation for the practical exercises.

STEP 5

If your Application for RPL is SUCCESSFUL you will be granted RPL, your record will be adjusted and you will be advised in writing prior to training commencing.

If your Application for RPL is UNSUCCESSFUL you will not be granted RPL and you will be advised in writing with reasons.

STEP 6

If your application for RPL is UNSUCCESSFUL and you wish to APPEAL the decision, you can lodge an appeal in writing with Marine Training Services and your application will be reassessed.

If the APPEAL is UPHELD you can gain the competency by experience or through training, then resubmit an application

If the APPEAL is SUCCESSFUL you will be granted RPL, your record will be adjusted and you will receive notification in writing.
